FISCAL YEAR 2009 PROJECT REQUEST FORM

Project Name: Alaska Adaptive Recreation Alliance

Project Location: Alaska

Project Description (please attach additional pages as required):

A statewide collaboration between Challenge Alaska, Southeast Alaska Independent Living Center and Kenai Peninsula Independent Living Center, to provide adaptive and therapeutic recreation to individuals with disabilities of all ages in the state of Alaska. Recreational activities and experiences provided through this project can be expected to aid participants in employment, independence, mobility, community integration, and socialization. Recreation has been established as a vital factor in aiding people with disabilities to overcome barriers to employment and education. By providing opportunities to interact with peers, to access social events, and to participate in recreational activities, this project seeks to promote the productive and active involvement of people with disabilities in their local communities.
